HUGE THING®

Hey! Are you looking for new experiences? Here we are :)

We are growing and we are looking for our new team member for the Project Manager role! So, if you like startups, and are interested in innovation processes work - Huge Thing is a good place for you :) Check the below details and if you feel the description suits you - send us your application (cv + short description) on hello@hugething.vc and say Hi! to the new adventure.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for real "doer" personalities. People connected in the innovation ecosystem. It would be good if you had experience in acceleration, incubation programs, or in being a part of innovation processes in corporations or other organizations. If you know how to play service design/design thinking tools - is also an additional value. We are looking for a person who likes people and has no problem building new relationships. We need to know English to be able to communicate freely (spoken and written). Work location Poznań or Warsaw.

Skills needed - short sum-up:

- experience in acceleration/incubation programs and/or innovation processes
- fluent English (spoken and written)
- self-reliance
- networking skills
- knowledge of service design/design thinking tools will be additional value

Your potential duties & responsibilities

The Project Manager will lead the Acceleration Programs, including educational and training content development and delivery. Support the overall innovation and startup ecosystem in our network. Act as the prime contact with startups, mentors, investors, and stakeholders. Support other innovation initiatives and projects.

Want more? Here you can find a short sneak peek of d&r:

A. Incubation & Acceleration program lead

- Lead the accelerator programs for all HT projects
- Lead incubated teams throughout the entire incubation journey
- Taking care of all necessary support, mentorship, and training to startups
- Liaising with 3rd party trainers, mentors, and educators as necessary

B. Startups support

- Review & evaluation of startup pitch decks, advising on investment recommendations
- Interact with and support portfolio startups regularly Innovation research, support, and analysis
- Research innovation ecosystem and contribute to potential projects to stakeholders
- Mentorship Management
- Leading the communication with mentors, investors, and stakeholders

C. Entrepreneurship Outreach

- Scouting high-quality startups locally and internationally
- Developing key databases of startups, founders, mentors, etc.
- Cooperation with SpeedUp Group invest team on scouting field

D. Networking

- Building alliances with influencers in the ecosystem
- Represent HT in conferences and external events
- Innovation processes
- Taking part in other projects on innovation processes bias realized by HT
- Facilitate the cooperation with innovation processes for HT partners

What we can offer you

→ Opportunity to develop existing competencies and acquire new skills not only within the company but also within the SpeedUp Group.

- → Nice team and friendly atmosphere at work.
- → Flexible working system.
- → Opportunity to work with international brands.
- → Independence and responsibility for entrusted tasks.
- → The form of employment that suits you best.

About Huge Thing

Huge Thing started in 2012 as one of the first operators of acceleration programs in Poland. Till today we realized 9. editions of programs for startups. 2018 we also started to support companies at every stage of the process of acquiring innovation – from setting the framework and strategies of innovation teams, through support in the implementation of programs and initiatives whose goal is to acquire and create innovations that meet their needs.

Huge Thing helps corporations to discover their inner face of innovation. We are also a part of SpeedUp Group - a group of leading venture capital funds operated in CEE. More about us you can find on hugething.vc